Apply to Become a Commissioner of the Captiva Erosion Prevention District

At our November Board meeting, Commissioners discussed opening the vacancy for the Secretary position following the loss of Harry Kaiser, who devoted years to serving the residents of Captiva on our Board of Commissioners.

The Captiva Erosion Prevention District is governed by an elected board of five commissioners, each of whom is a qualified elector residing within the district.

This is a non-partisan office.

Why Become a Commissioner of the Captiva Erosion Prevention District?

- Because you are community-oriented
- Because you care about preserving and sustaining the coastal environment
- Because you recognize the benefits beach renourishment bring to both the community and local economy.
- Because you want to make sure Captiva is a viable and thriving community well into the future
